To incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on April 8, 2013.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
2	Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime. Supporting Evidence: Chelce Zimmerman has been charged with trafficking in stolen property in Spokane, Washington. A warrant was issued for her arrest on April 26, 2013. accelerated to approximately 90 miles per hour. When the vehicle came to a stop, both the male and female fled from the vehicle.

The registered owner of the vehicle was Robert L. Brown. The officer involved in the pursuit was able to identify Mr. Brown from a photograph he had been provided by the police department. Officers learned that the female in the vehicle was dropped off at a local residence after she told a concerned citizen that she had been in a vehicle collision and had fallen in the creek.

When officers arrived at the residence, they observed a female that matched the description of the female that fled. She had two plastic bags on the floor next to her. The plastic bags contained wet clothing which matched the description of the female that fled. This individual was identified as Chelce Zimmerman. Ms. Zimmerman admitted to the police officer that Robert Brown had picked her up in Spokane at the Port of Hope Residential Reentry Center (RRC) where she had been staying. She indicated that she ran from the police because Robert Brown told her to.

Robert Brown is a known felon that resided at the RRC at the same time as Ms. Zimmerman. Mr. Brown absconded from the RRC on April 4, 2013. Ms. Zimmerman was arrested on outstanding felony warrants from the Washington State Department of Corrections and a Federal U.S. Marshals' hold.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
